Eight Diocesan Schools Receive Tuition Grant Awards

GREEN BAY, Wis. (March 30, 2021) – Superintendent of Catholic Schools for the Diocese of Green Bay, Todd Blahnik, today announced that eight schools from the diocese received $10,000 awards from the George and Mary Kremer Foundation to help underwrite the tuition costs of children from financially challenged families in their schools. The awards were given to:

- All Saints Catholic School in Antigo
- Lourdes Academy Middle School in Oshkosh
- Roncalli Catholic School in Manitowoc
- Sacred Heart Catholic School in Shawano
- St. France Xavier Elementary and Middle School in Appleton
- St. Mary Catholic Middle School in Neenah
- St. Thomas More Catholic School in Green Bay.

The Kremer Foundation is dedicated to Catholic education and assists qualified students in financial need to be able to share in the blessing of a Catholic education. Student award selection is based on financial need without regard to gender, race, nationality, citizenship or religion. Families who are interested in applying for tuition assistance should reach out directly to their school.
